Interchange Junctions - Exhibition Open Day

HS Projects are delighted to present Interchange Junctions, a group exhibition of internationally established and emerging artists examining ideas of colonialism, post colonialism, slavery, cultural exchange and trade. The exhibition examines contested cultural and political histories which carry special resonance at Howick Place, named after Viscount Howick - later 2nd Earl Grey - one of the main architects of the Reform Act 1832, Catholic emancipation and the abolition of slavery in the British Empire.

During the Open Day 17th May, the exhibition will be open between 11am - 5pm.

Those interested in attending must register for the event by emailing jball@thecommunicationgroup.co.uk. Spaces are limited.

11am - 5pm Free of charge. Registration required. Email jball@thecommunicationgroup.co.uk to register.
