IN THE MAKING: YINKA SHONIBARE MBE'S HOWICK PLACE 'WIND SCULPTURE'

Yinka Shonibare MBE with his 'Wind Sculpture', London

I'm delighted to be able to present After Nyne readers with an exclusive 'behind the scenes' video of the making of internationally renowned artist Yinka Shonibare MBE's 'Wind Sculpture'.

The site specific sculpture was unveiled at London's Howick Place earlier this month. The video contains an exclusive interview with Yinka Shonibare MBE.

Many thanks to Howick Place for giving me access to the video, which can be seen by clicking on the link below:
